NASA IRB Huron Guide for Researchers
Submitting a Study Closure

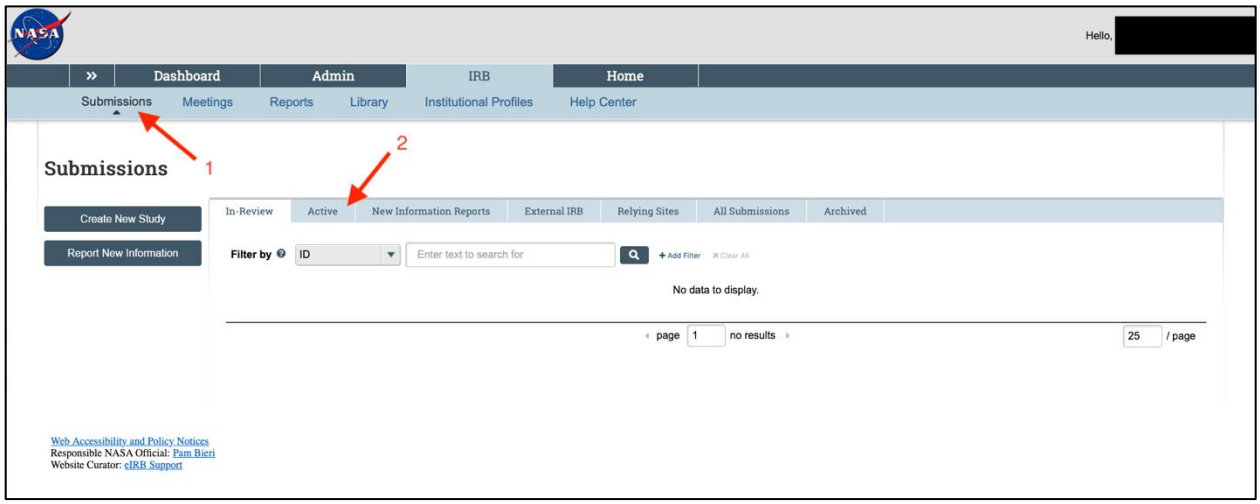

If you wish to submit for continuing review of your study, submit a MODCR. If you wish to close your study, open a CR alone. This manual will specifically review submitting a study closure.

1. Visit https://eirb.jsc.nasa.gov/EIRB/ and click “Login” at the top right corner of the screen. Enter your user name and password and click “Login.”

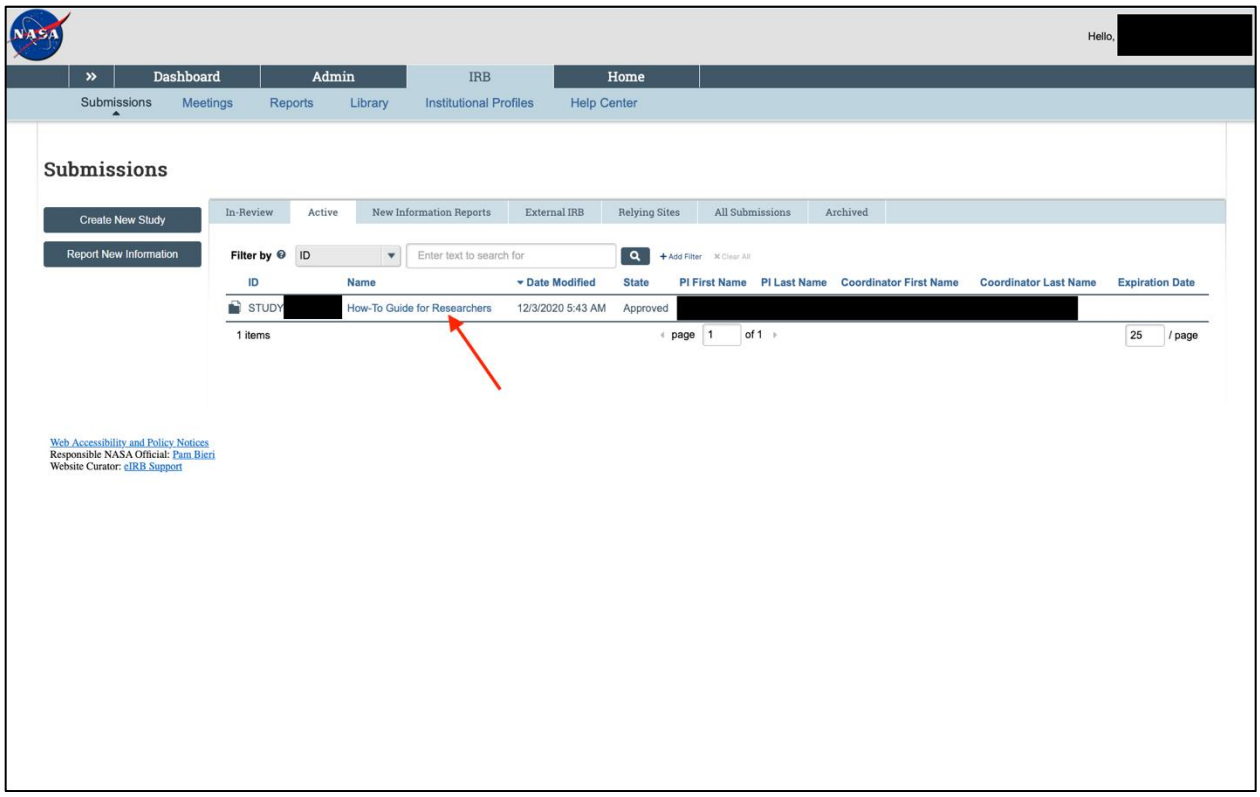

2. In the top navigator bar, click “IRB.”

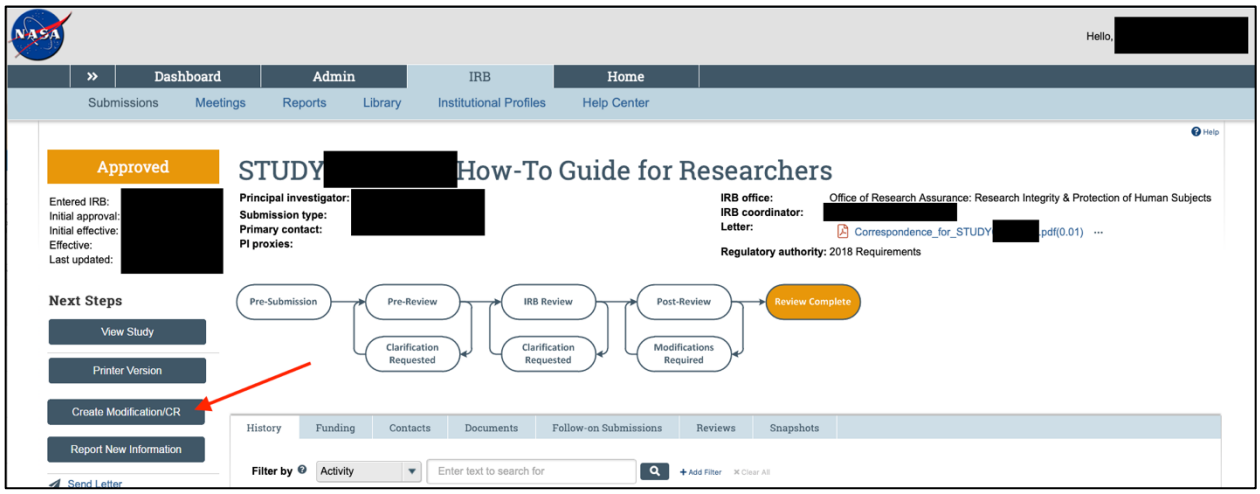

3. Then, click “Submission” in the top navigator bar, then click the “Active” tab.

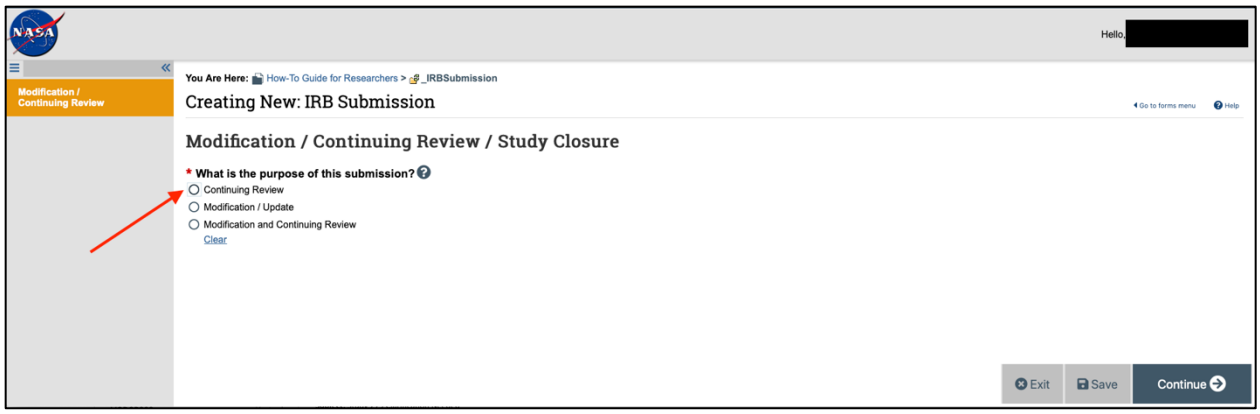

4. Click on the title of the study of interest.

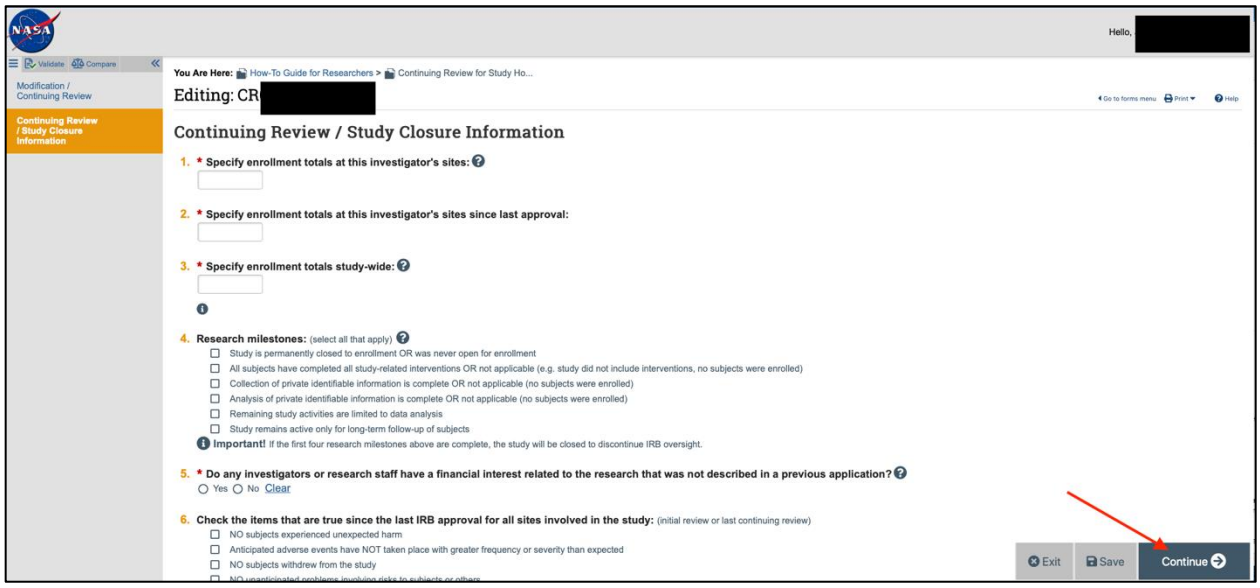

5. Click on “Create Modification/CR” on the left side of the screen.

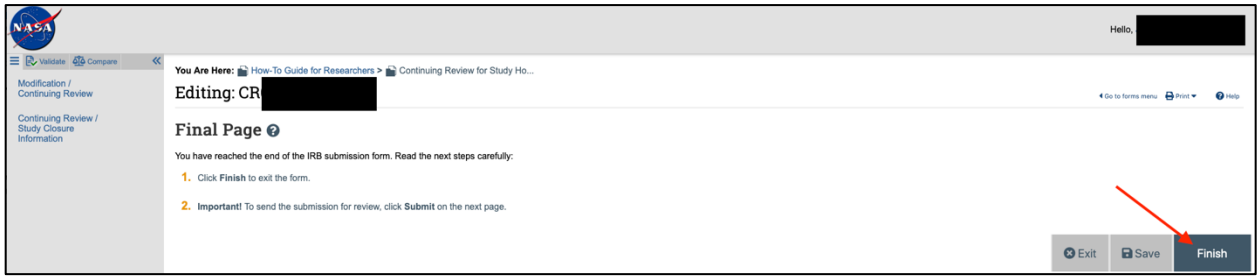

6. Select “Continuing Review

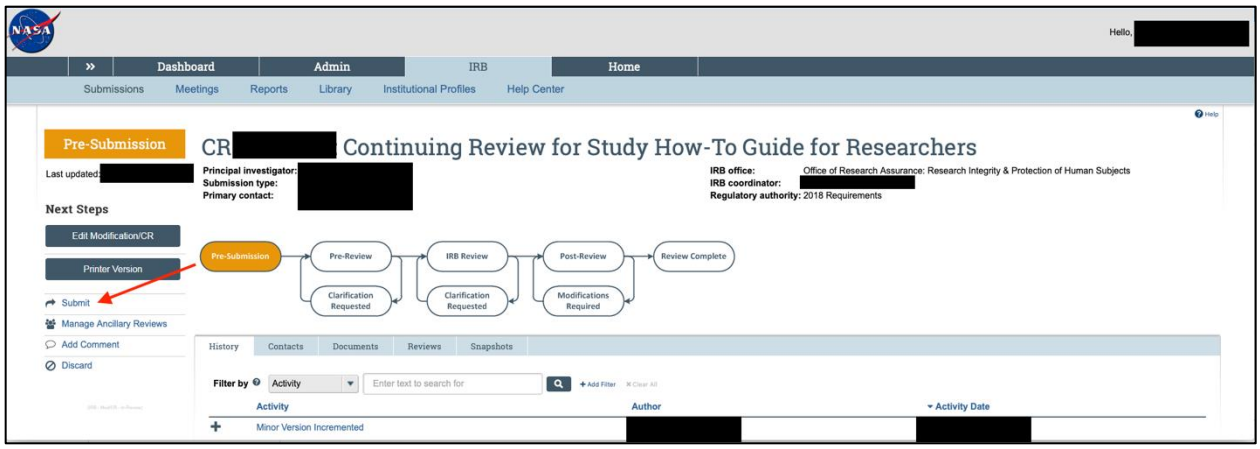

7. Answer numbers 1 through 7. Click “Continue.” Note, for number 4, select the first four responses to indicate you want to close the study and discontinue IRB oversight.

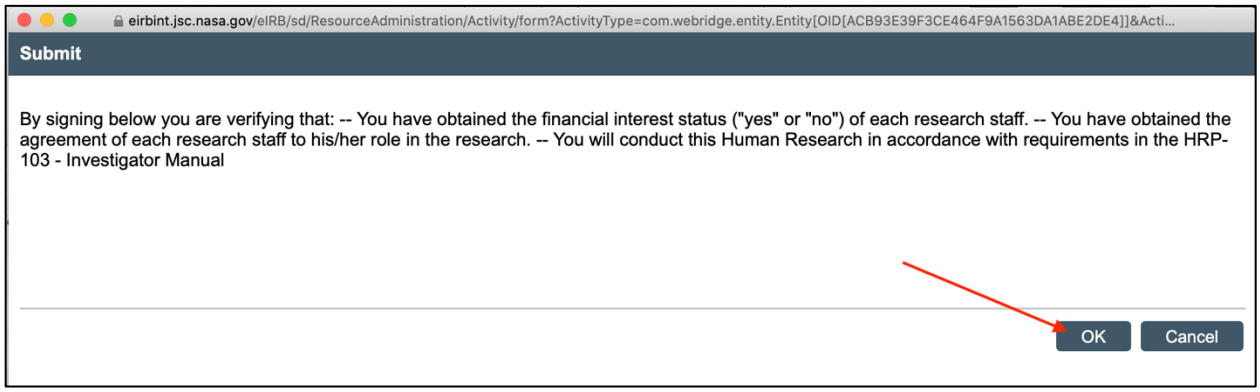

8. Click “Finish.”

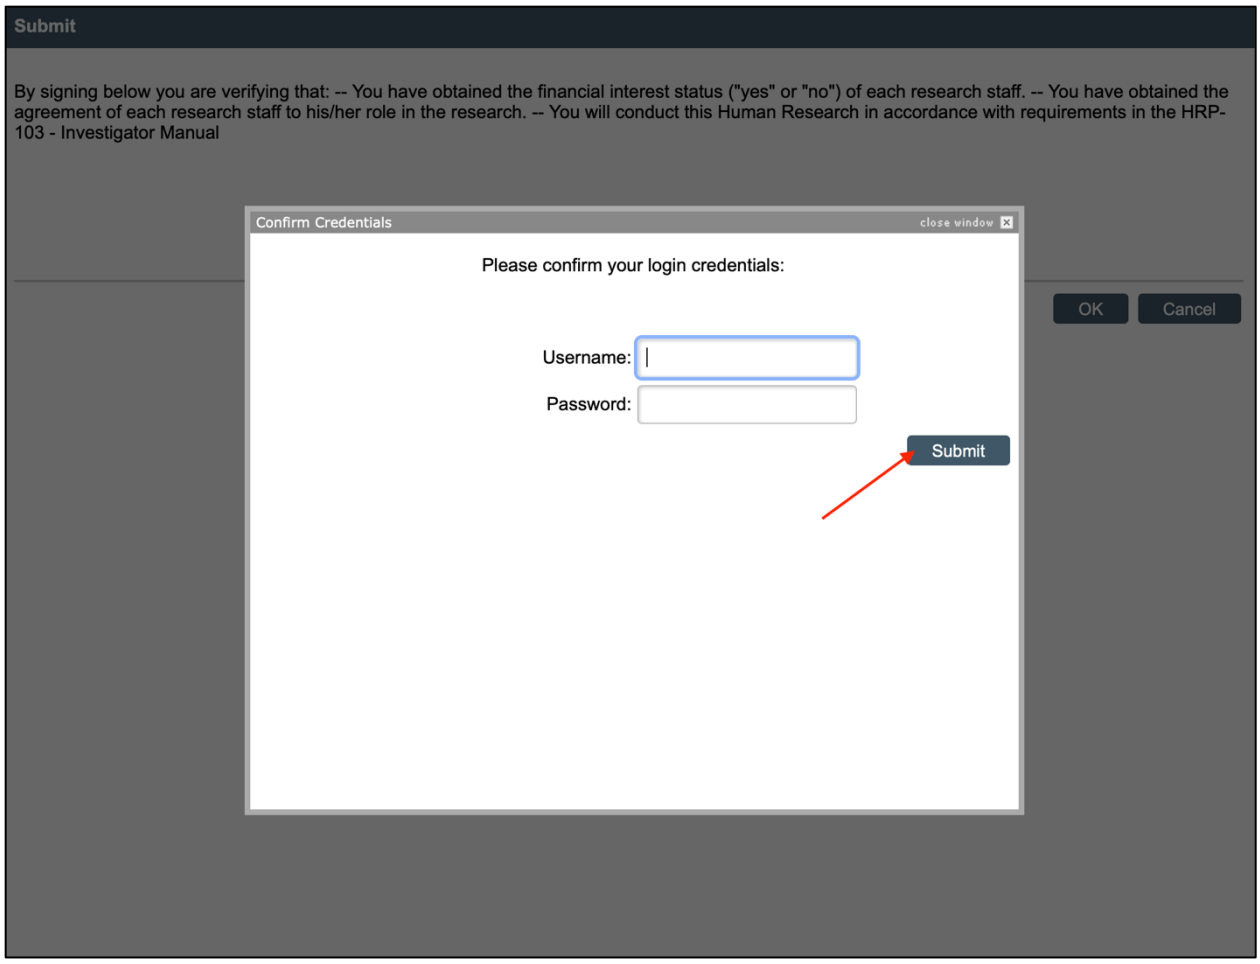

9. Click “Submit” on the left side of the screen to submit the CR (study closure) to the IRB Office.

10. A new screen will open. Click “OK” to verify.

11. Enter your eIRB user name and password. Then click “Submit.”

12. The (CR) status will show as “Pre-Review” when successfully submitted.
